IN AND AROUND ETAPLES SUR MER AND LE TOUQUET - PARIS PLAGE

* Le Touquet in a few words

Le Touquet is a chic, racy seaside resort nicknamed « Paris Plage » (Paris-by-the-sea). The resort was built in the 1920's when it was a choice destination for the British aristocracy and wealthy Parisians. Today a wide variety of sporting activities are on offer from sand-yachting to golf with two famous 18-hole courses. Thalassotherapy is by far the most relaxing way to keep fit and Le Touquet has one of France's most modern centres.

* Etaples-sur-Mer in a few words

For over 2000 years, Etaples has preserved a maritime tradition with its exceptional localization in the Baie de Canche. This charming little port at the south of the Opal Coast, adjoining Le Touquet-Paris Plage, lives to the rhythm of tides.

* Where to Shop ?

The markets :

In Etaples : On Tuesday and Friday mornings in the town centre, this colourful market is good for fresh food and local produce. Feel free to wander along the harbour promenade with its fisherman's stalls and enjoy freshly caught fish.

In Le Touquet : On Thursday and Saturday mornings, held in a semi-covered market in rue de Metz. From mid May to September, there is also a market on Monday mornings.

Shopping Streets :

In Etaples : There is an attractive shopping area in the town centre.

In Le Touquet : Rue St Jean and the streets

perpendicular to this, are the main shopping area but Avenue du Verger also has some interesting shops. Perard's fish soup, rue de Metz is definitely a good buy to take home with a little jar of "rouille" and some croutons.

Watch out for "Le Chat Bleu" and "Beussent" chocolate shops too.
